Its expertise includes wealth audit and (re)structuring, estate planning, consolidation, relocation advisory, strategic diversification and operational oversight. The Group operates as a single, independent and confidential point of contact for the families it serves, ensuring long-term consistency across jurisdictions.

“This recognition underscores our mission: to provide families with clarity, strategic organisation and long-term stability in an increasingly complex world,” said Aurore Shaki, Founder and CEO of MUA GROUP. “Our role as a Multi Family Office is not limited to financial advisory; it is about building a consistent and coordinated framework that supports families across generations.”

A spokesperson for MUA GROUP added: “Our independent and cross-border model—combining wealth structuring, operational coordination and estate planning—allows us to anticipate complexity and secure long-term wealth balances for the families we accompany. We are honoured that our work has been recognised at an international level.”
