

DR. BARRY LOTZ'S LATEST GOLF EQUIPMENT REVIEWS CONTINUE TO REACH GOLFERS WORLDWIDE ACROSS LEADING GOLF MEDIA OUTLETS

Seven new equipment-focused articles covering some of golf's most innovative products, ranging from putters and shafts to footwear and fairway woods.

LA JOLLA, CA, UNITED STATES, June 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- June 2026 — Dr. Barry Lotz, J.D., Ph.D., Director of the Professional Golf Teachers Association of America (PGTAA – www.pgtaa.com) and a member of the Golf Writers Association of America (GWAA), continues to provide golfers with in-depth equipment analysis, product testing, and performance reviews through a growing network of respected golf publications worldwide.

Over the past several weeks, Dr. Lotz has published seven new equipment-focused articles covering some of golf's most innovative products, ranging from putters and shafts to footwear and fairway woods. As always, these reviews are based on real-world testing by Dr. Lotz and his evaluation team, adhering to his long-standing philosophy:

If I or my testing group have not personally tested a product, I do not write about it.”

The latest reviews include:

1. Tour Edge Exotics Max 9-Wood & Exotics Mini Driver

A comprehensive review of two clubs designed to help golfers launch the ball higher, hit more fairways, and enjoy greater confidence throughout the bag. The article examines the technologies behind Tour Edge's latest offerings and explains why both clubs could become gamechangers for many golfers.

2. L.A.B. Golf VZN.1i

An in-depth look at L.A.B. Golf's newest Lie Angle Balance putter, combining zero-torque technology with enhanced alignment geometry designed to help golfers start more putts online.

3. Killer Golf Artifact™ Putter

A detailed evaluation of one of the most unique putter concepts in golf, featuring modular weighting and a proprietary approach to helping golfers adapt to daily performance fluctuations.

4. Breakthrough Golf FORTA F2 Shaft

An analysis of a remarkably lightweight shaft designed to increase speed while maintaining stability and control, particularly beneficial for senior golfers and players seeking additional distance.

5. Ben Sherman SS26 Golf Collection

A review of a golf apparel line that combines classic style, comfort, and modern performance, offering golfers a refreshing alternative in today's apparel marketplace.

6. Kizik Lima 2 Hands-Free Footwear

An examination of one of the most practical footwear innovations available today, featuring Kizik's HandsFree Labs® technology that allows golfers and active individuals to step into their shoes without bending over.

7. Additional Equipment and Technology Evaluations

Continuing his mission to help golfers make informed buying decisions, Dr. Lotz regularly reviews emerging products in shafts, putters, footwear, training aids, and game-improvement equipment designed to enhance performance and enjoyment.
