Featuring over 55 jewelry pieces across bracelets, rings, necklaces, and earrings, their latest offering comprises everyday fine jewelry staples that offer both personal expression and long-term versatility.

With Clarity's New Fashion Jewelry Collection

From understated diamond accents to more statement-making silhouettes, the pieces offer customers new ways to express their individual style through fine jewelry.

Fine Jewelry Designed for Endless Styling Possibilities

The way women wear jewelry has evolved. Fine jewelry is no longer reserved for milestones or kept in a box between occasions. Instead, it has become an integral part of everyday dressing, selected with the same care and intention once reserved for a single statement piece.

Collections are no longer defined by a handful of special purchases. Instead, they evolve through pieces chosen for their enduring appeal, craftsmanship, and ability to become lasting favorites. Quality has become the prerequisite, not the exception.

The New Fashion Jewelry Collection was developed with this evolution in mind. Bringing together refined gold and diamond designs, the assortment moves fluidly between jewelry classics and more fashion-forward silhouettes. Familiar styles such as gold hoops, bangles, and tennis bracelets are revisited through a contemporary lens. Additionally, contemporary chain styles, paper-clip necklaces, and station jewelry are included along with sculptural rings, a bold ear cuff and sleek two stone studs, creating a collection that feels both current and timeless.

Rings

The ring assortment introduces fashion and stackable silhouettes that sit comfortably alongside With Clarity's existing engagement ring offering. The Abigail Crossover Ring, Leni Pavé Ring and Josie Ring offer fashion-forward alternatives for those who prefer a more expressive designs, while the Petite Eternity Ring and Petite Anniversary Ring bridge the space between fashion rings and fine bands. For those building a stack, the Scottie series — available in pavé, round, and emerald variations — is designed explicitly for mixing and personalization.

Earrings

Designed to elevate everyday dressing, the earring offering includes everything from refined essentials to more dynamic styles. Diamond-accented designs such as the Paige Hoops and Danielle Hoops revisit the classic hoop, while the Cleo Mini Hoops, Quinn Hoops, Jolie Hoops, and Muse Huggie Hoops offer versatile options for everyday wear. The Lucy Ear Cuff caters to those drawn to bolder styling, while stud designs including the Tessa Duo Studs, Ana Two Stone Studs, and Elena Stacker Studs provide opportunities for creative styling and self-expression.
