Helping our veterans find meaningful employment is one of the most important ways we can honor their service”

Assemblyman Angelo Santabarbara

The Albany Job Fair will open one hour early at 1 pm to allow vets time with the recruiters before the general public enters at 2 pm. “We want to allow our veterans a quieter hour to talk to recruiters and honor their service,” said Darcy Knapp, event founder and organizer.

“Helping our veterans find meaningful employment is one of the most important ways we can honor their service,” said Assemblyman Angelo Santabarbara. “These brave men and women have the skills, discipline, and dedication that make them invaluable members of our workforce. Job fairs like this one not only connect veterans to great career opportunities but also remind them that their service is respected and appreciated long after their uniforms are retired.”

What also sets The Albany Job Fair apart is its resume distribution program, designed to benefit all job seekers — whether they attend in person or not. Resumes can be submitted ahead of the event by emailing to resumes@albanyjobfair.com. The resumes are then gathered and Job seeker registration is not required to attend. Job seekers are invited to speak directly with hiring representatives from major employers including over a dozen New York State Agencies, regional and national companies like Janitronics, Express Employment, Fabcon, Greenwood Industries. The Albany Job Fair is supported with outreach by the NYS Department of Labor and Veterans Services ahead of the event and on site.

Exciting news from the Albany job fair as we elevate the Veterans Hour to new heights! With attendance doubling in recent months, we're proud to announce new partnerships designed to provide essential resources for our service members. Attendees can expect an expanded range of services to support those transitioning into civilian careers and moving on from military life. Experts will be available to connect our veterans to vital healthcare benefits, enhancing their experience. This unique job fair is leading the way with a comprehensive wrap-around approach and a safe space for service members to connect to additional support and benefits. Collaborating with the Veterans Miracle Center and ClearPath, we are committed to ensuring our veterans receive the comprehensive support they deserve as they embark on this important new chapter! #albanyjobfair Jeffrey M Thoennes

“The Albany Job Fair distributes hundreds of resumes to each recruiting company ahead of the event. The resumes dropped off at the Albany Job Fair are scanned by eBiz docs and proved to the recruiters to hire from,” said Darcy Knapp, event director. “The Albany Job Fair is the only in-person job fair that facilitates resume distribution for all job seekers, whether they can attend or not.”

Recruiters can screen resumes and schedule interviews well in advance of the Albany Job Fair dates. Early submissions are encouraged to maximize visibility and interview potential. The mission of The Albany Job fair is to help job seekers find employment as quickly as possible.

"Our veterans will never get back the time they spent missing birthdays and anniversaries, first steps and first ball games. They gave that time to all of us. It's only right that we devote time to making sure they can access the jobs and opportunities that will help them enjoy the same American Dream they defended. I'm grateful for the Albany Job Fair's ongoing commitment to our veterans," said Senator Jacob Ashby.
