

Texas Music Project's Song of Hope Releases "Miracle," Inspired by the Journey of Junior Ambassador Skyler Derrington

New release shares a young survivor's journey through the healing power of music

DALLAS, TX, UNITED STATES, June 22, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Texas Music Project, a nonprofit organization that brings the healing power of music to at-risk youth, announced the release of "Miracle," the newest original song and accompanying music video from Song of Hope, the organization's creative content label. Inspired by the journey of Texas Music Project Junior Ambassador Skyler Derrington, a young survivor of the devastating 2025 Texas Hill Country floods, the song tells a story of resilience, hope, and healing.

Written and produced in collaboration with Texas Music Project songwriters and music therapists, "Miracle" reflects Skyler's journey over the past year. More than a song, "Miracle" serves as a testament to the power of music to help people navigate life's most difficult moments.

"Skyler's strength and spirit embody everything Song of Hope stands for," says Michael Clay, co-founder and executive director of Texas Music Project. "Her story reminds us that even in the darkest times, music can help us heal, connect, and find hope."

Song of Hope is an extension of Texas Music Project's Music Heals Program, which partners with children's hospitals, music therapists, and professional songwriters to support pediatric patients and at-risk youth across Texas. Together, they transform real-life experiences into professionally written and recorded songs that celebrate courage, strength, and perseverance while providing families with a lasting reminder of their journey.

For the Derrington family, participating in Song of Hope has helped transform a difficult chapter into a message of hope.

"It is an honor for my daughter to serve as a junior ambassador for such an amazing organization," says Lacey Derrington, Skyler's mother. "The past year has been filled with many emotions, and I am so happy that we have been able to focus on such a positive and hopeful message."

The official "Miracle" music video is available on Texas Music Project's YouTube channel.
