“Growing up in Bradenton, this community has always been home to me. My father spent his whole career as a dentist and watching him care for his patients is honestly what made me want to do this. I went to the University of Florida for dental school and when I finished I knew I

Lakewood Ranch has grown so much and there are so many wonderful families out here. We are just so excited to finally be part of this community and can't wait to start meeting everyone.” — Dr. Noel Keyzer, DMD
