ABOUT ALEX MILLER

This 23-year-old 6’ 6” entertainer from rural Lancaster, Kentucky is a natural fan favorite whose American Idol Season 19 run brought him fame and changed his life in 2021. Signed to Billy Jam Records, Alex has four well-received Jerry Salley-produced projects to his credit: MILLER TIME (2022), COUNTRY (2023), MY DADDY’S DAD (2024), and MORE COUNTRY THAN YOU (2026). Miller immediately enjoyed radio success with his early releases “Don’t Let The Barn Door Hit Ya,” “Through With You,” “I’m Over You, So Get Over Me,” “Girl, I Know A Guy,” and the smash single, “Puttin’ Up Hay.” His three most recent singles (“The Byrd [featuring Tracy Byrd], “Secondhand Smoke” and “Just A Mom”) have all enjoyed at least two weeks at #1 on the CDX True Indie Chart.

An energetic performer, Alex owns the spotlight when he hits the stage – and quickly captures the hearts of those in the crowd. He can be a wild man on up-tempo numbers – ala early Garth Brooks – or bring nuance and deep emotion to a tender ballad. He’s toured the State and County Fair circuit heavily (KY, MO, NY, WA, WI, IL, IN, OK, WV), and opened for Brooks & Dunn, Hank, Jr, Josh Turner, Lee Brice, Jamey Johnson, Luke Bryan, Chris Janson, Ian Munsick, Justin Moore, Alabama, Trace Adkins, Shenandoah, Emily Ann Roberts, Neal McCoy, Tracy Byrd and others. Alex has also devoted time to his songwriting, and has collaborated with hitmakers Kent Blazy, Jamey Johnson, Larry Cordle, Belle Frantz, Byron Hill, Carl Jackson, Kirsti Manna, John Meador, Mo Pitney, Wood Newton, Emily Ann Roberts, Jerry Salley, Josh Shilling, Bill Whyte and more. Alex closed out a spectacular 2023, receiving the American FFA Degree for Excellence, the organization’s highest accolade. He moved to Nashville in May 2024 and made his debut on the Grand Ole Opry the following month. In 2025, Miller was chosen as a brand ambassador for the Kentucky Department of Agriculture’s Kentucky Proud program and this year, he signed a sponsorship agreement with clothier Cowboy Hardware Western Wear.
