

As AI Threatens Legal Careers, www.AICareerDefense.com Launches Personal 12-Month Defense Plans for Lawyers/Paralegals

AI Is Already Automating Legal Work – Here Is What Every Legal Professional Needs to Do Right Now to Protect Their Career

SOUTHFIELD, MI, UNITED STATES, June 24, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Here is what most legal professionals do not want to hear. Goldman Sachs estimates 44% of legal tasks are automatable by AI. Clio's Legal Trends Report found that 69% of the hourly billable work paralegals perform can now be done – or significantly accelerated – by AI tools. And with the World Economic Forum projecting 92 million workers displaced globally by 2030, the legal profession is not the protected island many assumed it would be. The question is no longer whether AI will reshape legal careers. It is whether legal professionals will reshape themselves first. That all changes today.

Oxford Hill Partners is giving them the roadmap to do exactly that with www.AICareerDefense.com – a first-of-its-kind platform delivering personal, 12-Month AI Career Defense Plans built specifically for legal professionals, tailored to their career stage and greatest area of concern. The platform offers two distinct plans for the legal profession:

- Plan 1: Lawyers & Legal Professionals
- Plan 2: Paralegals & Legal Assistants

"WILL AI REPLACE MY LEGAL CAREER?" IS THE WRONG QUESTION

Thousands of legal professionals are Googling "AI replacing lawyers" every month. What they find are think-pieces debating whether the profession will survive – with little guidance on what any individual lawyer or paralegal should actually do right now. AI Career Defense was built to answer the right question: What specifically should I do over the next 12 months to protect my legal career and stay indispensable?

We give them a precise, quarter-by-quarter roadmap that shows them exactly what to do. And professionals who adapt strategically will find their skills in higher demand, not lower."
