vehicle (EV) production is driving entirely new performance requirements for thermally conductive and flame-retardant bonding solutions.

Simultaneously, the industry faces mounting headwinds: raw material volatility, the ripple effects of 2025 U.S. tariff shifts on global supply chains, tightening VOC regulations, and growing pressure to transition toward bio-based and water-borne chemistries. Together, these forces are compelling manufacturers, formulators, and procurement leaders to make faster, higher-stakes decisions than at any previous point in the sector's history.

"The adhesives and foam markets are at a critical inflection point shaped by sustainability pressures, raw material volatility, and fast-evolving end-user demands," said Mr. Raj Shah, CEO and Founder, Coherent Market Insights. "Our sessions will give industry stakeholders the intelligence they need to lead with confidence — not just describing the market, but defining where it is headed."

CMI's Speaking Sessions at the Adhesives & Bonding Expo 2026

Mr. Shah will address the expo's conference programme across two focused sessions on the Industry Stage:

- Tuesday, June 23, 2026 — Findings from CMI's Research on the Foam Market
- Wednesday, June 24, 2026 — Findings from CMI's Research on the Adhesives Market

Both sessions will unpack current and forecast market trajectories, identify high-growth segments across end-use industries, evaluate the impact of global megatrends including sustainability mandates and AI-enabled process innovation, and present data-backed strategic perspectives for decision-makers across the value chain.

The Adhesives & Bonding Expo's Industry Stage is designed for strategists, R&D professionals, and senior industry leaders seeking forward-looking intelligence on market trends, industry forecasts, regulatory developments, and end-user challenges.

CMI as Official Knowledge Partner

As Official Knowledge Partner, CMI brings its deep analytical expertise and forward-looking research capabilities directly into the expo's conference architecture. The partnership reflects CMI's commitment to making market intelligence accessible and actionable for the engineers, supply chain executives, R&D professionals, and business developers who shape the adhesives and foam industries.

With operations spanning 32+ countries, a team of 300+ full-time analysts and consultants, and a client base ranging from Fortune 500 manufacturers to institutional investors and public sector bodies, CMI is uniquely positioned to translate global market complexity into on-the-ground intelligence that North American industry professionals need most — particularly at a moment when the adhesives industry is undergoing its most significant structural transformation in a decade.
