About Mustang Harry's:

Located just steps from NYC's Madison Square Garden, Midtown Manhattan's legendary Irish gastropub, Mustang Harry's, has endured as an iconic Seventh Avenue fixture for three decades, cementing itself as NYC's go-to haven for sports fans, concert goers, locals, and visitors, alike. Owned and run by brothers Ian and Niall Conroy of County Tipperary, Ireland since its opening in 1995, Mustang Harry's offers a menu of handcrafted cuisine and elevated Irish staples that refute any preconceived notions of "pub fare," along with an expansive selection of artisanal cocktails, craft beers, curated wines, and fine spirits—including more than 200 varieties of whiskeys and tequilas. Throughout the two-floor space, a post-industrial motif creates an inviting ambiance: tufted leather banquettes and cozy nooks mingle with antique fixtures and old Conroy family relics to capture the rustic charisma of old-world New York with winks of Irish charm—while an impressive 99-foot main-level bar, 20+ HDTVs, and premium surround sound create the ultimate game-day (or fight night) experience. Mustang Harry's is located at 352 7th Avenue in close proximity to Penn Station and famous NYC landmarks such as the Empire State Building and Herald Square. It is open seven days a week for lunch and dinner. For more information or to make a reservation, please call (212) 268-8930 or visit www.mustangharrys.com.
