Association of Change Management Professionals® Announces Michael Bungay Stanier as Keynote Speaker for Change Toronto 2026

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES,
June 24, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

The Association of Change Management Professionals® \(ACMP®\) is pleased to announce that Michael Bungay Stanier, best-selling author, leadership expert, and host of the Change Signal podcast, will serve as the keynote speaker for Change Toronto 2026, taking place September 28–30, 2026, in Toronto, Canada.

Michael has a unique ability to challenge conventional thinking while providing practical insights that leaders can immediately apply.”

Deshini Newman, ACMP Chief Executive Officer

Known globally for his practical and thought-provoking approach to leadership and organizational change, Bungay Stanier is the author of eight books, including The Coaching Habit, the best-selling coaching book of this century. Through his writing, speaking, and podcasting, he has helped leaders and organizations rethink how they navigate complexity, uncertainty, and transformation.

At Change Toronto 2026, Bungay Stanier will challenge attendees to reconsider traditional approaches to organizational change in an era where artificial intelligence, accelerating disruption, and increasing complexity are reshaping how organizations operate. His keynote will set us up for the conversations over the conference on the event theme, "AI & Change: Something Big is Happening — Elevating Leadership, Advancing Practice."

"Michael has a unique ability to challenge conventional thinking while providing practical insights that leaders can immediately apply," said Deshini Newman, CEO of ACMP. "As organizations grapple with the opportunities and challenges presented by artificial intelligence and rapid transformation, his perspective on leadership and change will resonate deeply with our community. We are delighted to welcome him to Change Toronto and thank Michael for joining us to share his insights."
