IAOTP will celebrate it's 10th year of giving back globally and dedicating its mission to Philanthropy

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, June 24, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For the past ten years, the International Association of Top Professionals (IAOTP) has remained steadfast in its commitment to making a meaningful difference beyond recognizing excellence in business and leadership. While IAOTP is known internationally for honoring some of the world's most accomplished executives, physicians, entrepreneurs, innovators, philanthropists, and thought leaders, the organization believes that true success is measured not only by professional achievement, but by the positive impact we make on others.

"From the very beginning, giving back has been woven into the fabric of IAOTP," said Stephanie Ciriemi, President and Founder of IAOTP. "Every event we host is an opportunity to celebrate extraordinary leaders while also supporting extraordinary organizations that are saving lives, protecting children, empowering families, honoring our veterans, and bringing hope to those who need it most. We are incredibly grateful to our members and sponsors whose support allows us to continue this mission year after year."

Over the past decade, IAOTP has proudly supported numerous nonprofit organizations through charitable donations generated from event proceeds, including:

Each year, IAOTP carefully selects charitable organizations that align with its core values of leadership, service, compassion, and global impact. The organization encourages its members to become involved not only professionally but philanthropically, creating a community dedicated to making the world a better place.

As IAOTP celebrates its milestone 10th Anniversary, the organization looks forward to expanding its charitable initiatives and continuing to partner with nonprofits whose missions inspire hope, healing, and positive change across the globe.

"Our honorees are among the most accomplished professionals in the world," added Ciriemi. "What makes them even more remarkable is their shared commitment to giving back. Together, we are proving that leadership and philanthropy go hand in hand."

IAOTP extends its heartfelt gratitude to every member, sponsor, partner, and attendee who has participated in its events over the past decade. Their support has helped transform celebrations of success into opportunities to create lasting change for countless individuals and families.
