The schedule will include the San Francisco Pie Eating Contest at 6:30 PM, followed by the Annual San Francisco Hot Dog Eating Contest at 7PM. Now in its 16th year, the San Francisco Fourth of July Pub Crawl has become one of the city's largest Independence Day parties. Attendees can visit participating bars at their own pace while enjoying exclusive drink specials, DJs, party favors, the Find the Gnome Contest and other activities throughout the neighborhood.

The Fourth of July Pub Crawl is a great way to celebrate the holiday. People can join the crawl, watch the eating contests and then head toward the waterfront for the fireworks.”

Participants will begin the day by checking in at Rick & Roxy's, located at 2131 Lombard Street. Each attendee will receive an official event wristband and a pub crawl map showing the participating locations and event details.

The pub crawl officially begins at 2PM and continues until 10PM.

Participating venues are expected to include Jaxson, Rick & Roxy's, Westwood, The Blue Light, Union Street Ale House, Palm House, The Brixton, Comet Club, Wizards & Wands and White

Rabbit, with additional bars scheduled to join the event.

Annual Eating Contests Return to Jaxson

Both competitions are open to members of the public. Contestants will compete for prizes and the opportunity to claim the 2026 championship title. The eating contests are designed to be entertaining for participants and spectators. Pub crawl attendees are encouraged to gather at Jaxson, support their favorite contestants and watch as San Francisco's newest eating champions are crowned.

Professional competitive eating experience is not required. Anyone who believes they have the appetite and determination to compete can enter.

A Full Fourth of July Celebration in the Marina

The Marina District offers a convenient location for the annual event because of its large collection of bars, restaurants and nightlife venues.
