

Harbour Air Introduces Additional Direct Service to Vancouver Island's West Coast With New Ucluelet Route

This new daily service puts Ucluelet within an hour of downtown Vancouver

VANCOUVER, CANADA, June 25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, Harbour Air launched its first flight from Downtown Vancouver to Ucluelet. The new seaplane service will operate daily during the summer season with one-way fares starting at $209†.

"We are excited to bring this new service to Ucluelet," said Ayesha Howitt, Vice-President of People, Culture and Safety at Harbour Air. "Ucluelet has been recognized as one of the world's top travel destinations for 2026 by Expedia, and we're making it easier to experience first-hand. Whether you're out on the ocean watching whales or simply taking in the spectacular landscape, this flight puts you in the heart of it all in under an hour."

New for the summer season, Harbour Air lands directly in the Ucluelet Inlet, connecting travellers from downtown Vancouver to Ucluelet's town centre in approximately 50 minutes. The route offers travellers seamless access to dramatic shorelines, dense forest trails and the relaxed coastal atmosphere that has put Ucluelet on the map nationally and internationally.

The Vancouver-Ucluelet route joins Harbour Air's flights to Tofino, including wheeled flights during the winter season, extending Harbour Air's network further into Vancouver Island's west coast. It's part of Harbour Air's commitment to saving people time and making more of BC accessible. As interest in Ucluelet continues to grow, Harbour Air is positioned to be the easiest way to get there.
