Official sponsor IPD returns for the fifth consecutive year to support the Kuhnle Brothers Semi Stampede and connect with racing fans.

CARSON, CA, UNITED STATES, June 25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IPD (Industrial Parts Depot, LLC), a global leader in aftermarket heavy-duty engine parts, announces its continued sponsorship and participation in the Kuhnle Brothers Semi Stampede 2026, taking place June 26-28 in Thompson, Ohio. The annual event features Ohio's only Quebec-style uphill, side-by-side semi truck drag racing competition and attracts racers, teams, and diesel enthusiasts from across the region.

For more than 70 years, IPD has supported the heavy-duty engine market with quality replacement parts trusted across on-highway, construction, marine, and industrial applications. Sponsoring events like the Kuhnle Brothers Semi Stampede allows the company to support the diesel community while celebrating the engineering and performance that power the trucking industry.

The Semi Stampede features both loaded and bobtail semi truck racing, giving fans a unique opportunity to experience the power and performance of purpose-built racing trucks in a competitive environment.

IPD has proudly supported the Kuhnle Brothers Semi Stampede since the event's inaugural season in 2022 and returns as an official sponsor for the fifth consecutive year. The ongoing partnership reflects IPD's commitment to supporting motorsports events that celebrate the power, performance, and durability of heavy-duty diesel engines.

Members of the IPD team will be on-site throughout the weekend to meet attendees, connect with customers, and support the event's competitors and organizers. Visitors will also have the opportunity to receive newly released IPD Rebuilding Season t-shirts while supplies last.

"Kuhnle Brothers Semi Stampede has become a standout event for truck racing fans and the diesel community," said Michael Badar, President of IPD. "We are proud to continue our sponsorship and support an event that celebrates the performance, reliability, and passion that drive the heavy-duty industry.
