

iDS Recognized for a Ninth Consecutive Year by Chambers and Partners as a Leading eDiscovery Consultancy

Dan Regard named Band 1 individual for the ninth straight year as iDS cements its place among the industry's most trusted eDiscovery and data strategy firms.

WASHINGTON, DC, DC, UNITED STATES, June 25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- iDiscovery Solutions, Inc. (iDS) has earned a Band 2 ranking USA-Nationwide and a Band 4 UK-wide in Chambers and Partners' 2026 Litigation Support Guide, marking nine consecutive years of recognition by one of the legal industry's most rigorous independent ranking authorities. This achievement reflects the firm's sustained excellence in delivering expert-driven eDiscovery, digital forensics, and data strategy services to law firms, corporations, and government agencies worldwide.

Founder and CEO Dan Regard has once again been named to the Band 1 individual ranking, his ninth consecutive recognition at the highest level. This distinction places Regard among an elite group of eDiscovery consultants whose expertise, client relationships, and case impact Chambers evaluates through an independent, interview-based research process.

“Nine years of recognition is not something that happens by accident. It reflects the caliber of our people, the consistency of our work, and the trust our clients place in us when the stakes are highest. We are building something rare in this industry and we are just getting started.”

Dan Regard, Founder and CEO, iDiscovery Solutions

Chambers and Partners rankings are determined through in-depth research and client interviews, assessing technical capabilities, responsiveness, strategic counsel, and the overall impact firms deliver in complex, high-stakes matters. iDS clients have consistently cited the firm's speed, precision, and bespoke approach as differentiating factors in their recognition.
