“We continue to see significant potential beyond our already developed footholds in Asia,” said Dan. “As I step into this leadership role, I am grateful for the opportunity to continue to support our teams in both Hong Kong and Bangalore and drive strong performance across these high-growth markets.”

Dan joined Smith in 2001 as a Procurement Specialist and was named Assistant Sales Manager in 2006. He was promoted to General Manager in 2019, where he pushed himself to broaden his knowledge base across new and evolving markets. He has since taken on additional management and mentorship roles, helping traders grow their skills and develop new techniques for supporting their clients.

“Dan is a patient teacher who is more than willing to share his knowledge while consistently supporting and guiding his team members,” said Kent Pang, Chief Trading Officer at Smith. “Traders who work with him know they can trust his honesty, transparency, and professionalism. With his strong character and proven track record, Dan is well-equipped to serve our offices across Asia, and I look forward to seeing strong growth in India and Hong Kong with his support.”
