

Emerson Fine Jewelry Offers Authentic Roberto Coin Jewelry and Diamond Necklaces in Redlands

Redlands family-owned jeweler provides handcrafted pieces & authentic Roberto Coin collections, featuring ethically sourced diamonds and expert jewelry services

REDLANDS, CA, UNITED STATES, June 26, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Emerson Fine Jewelry, a family-owned and operated jeweler serving customers from its historical showroom on State Street in Redlands, California, since 1959, offers a curated collection of Roberto Coin jewelry, including Roberto Coin diamond necklaces, for engagement, anniversary, and milestone shoppers in the Inland Empire.

The Roberto Coin brand, founded in 1996 in Vicenza, Italy — a city historically recognized as the "City of Gold" — produces jewelry that blends traditional Italian artisanal techniques with modern design. Founder Roberto Coin initially produced pieces for other international brands before establishing his own collection, driven by a focus on design that combines classical craftsmanship with contemporary aesthetics.

Roberto Coin jewelry is distinguished by a specific hallmark of authenticity: a small ruby set on the inside of each piece, designed to rest against the wearer's skin. According to the brand, this detail draws on an ancient Egyptian legend suggesting that rubies bring peace, prosperity, and happiness. Each authentic Roberto Coin piece also bears the official Italian hallmark indicating gold purity and the brand's "1226 VI" registration, representing Vicenza.

The collections available through Emerson Fine Jewelry include Roberto Coin diamond necklaces and gold pieces spanning multiple design lines, including the Princess Flower collection, which features intricate gold-petaled motifs. The brand's designs have been worn at red carpet events by figures including Cynthia Erivo, Dakota Johnson, and Scarlett Johansson, according to the brand.

Ethical Sourcing and Industry Membership

Roberto Coin is a member of the Responsible Jewelry Council and adheres to the Kimberley Process. According to the company, every Roberto Coin diamond necklace is crafted using conflict-free diamonds and ethically sourced precious metals. This commitment to responsible sourcing aligns with Emerson Fine Jewelry's own standards, as the Redlands jeweler has stated that its dedication to quality is paired with a commitment to ethical integrity and transparency in how it conducts business.

"I love this place! I take everything to them, and they always do a wonderful job, and I am always happy with their service! They are always so kind when I walk in and so helpful cannot recommend this place enough," said customer Imma Trejo.
