

UrbanBuild Announces Strategic Partnership with Hearth to Offer Flexible Customer Financing Solutions

UrbanBuild now offers flexible financing through Hearth, making HVAC, plumbing, electrical, and home improvement projects more affordable.

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, June 26, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- UrbanBuild, LLC, a leading provider of HVAC, plumbing, electrical, and general contracting services throughout Central Texas, is proud to announce a new strategic partnership with Hearth, a premier home improvement financing platform. This partnership allows UrbanBuild customers to access convenient financing options for a wide range of residential and commercial projects.

Through Hearth's financing platform, qualified customers can now explore personalized financing options for HVAC system replacements, plumbing repairs, electrical upgrades, remodeling projects, and other home and business improvements. The program provides a simple, transparent application process with no impact to credit scores when checking available options.

"We understand that unexpected repairs and major improvement projects can place a financial burden on homeowners and business owners," said Chris Garcia, Principal of UrbanBuild.

The addition of customer financing further supports UrbanBuild's commitment to delivering exceptional service and making high-quality improvements more accessible to families and businesses across the region.

Benefits of the Hearth financing platform include:

- Fast and secure online application process
- Multiple financing options from trusted lending partners
- Flexible loan amounts and repayment terms
