

Nashville's Sarah Harralson New Biopic Film & EP Launch

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, June 29, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Just announced! Today, Darice G (CEO) Synapse Publishing & Entertainment®, LLC announced the release of Nashville recording artist Sarah Harralson's new biopic short film documentary titled "JUST THE BEGINNING". The documentary was directed by Dante Nazzaro (Synapse Spotlight Productions, LLC/Martini Films) The timeline follows Sarah's path from Birmingham Alabama being the granddaughter of a Bluegrass accordion player onto Knoxville, Tennessee eventually reaching Nashville. Sarah continues to enjoy a successful career in music to this day and is currently touring.

The film's release party and premiere occurred on May 13th at the Bowery Vault in Nashville. The film's release is accompanied by Ms. Harralson's EP by the same name. The audio compilation spans 30 years of the artist's key life events which ultimately opened various doors which led her to reach the status of accomplished singer, songwriter, actress, author, podcast host, and producer. Co-writers Georgia

Miles and Bill DiLuigi assisted in several songs including the current single 'It Can't Rain All the Time' which is a popular song for the many patients Sarah entertains through her volunteer work at Musicians on Call. Sarah has been signed to Synapse's label and publishing services since
