

LiveKill Set to Support 'The Metal Saint Tour 2026'

Florida Heavy Metal Band Joins Metal Church and Armored Saint for November North American Run

FL, UNITED STATES, June 30, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- South Florida heavy metal band LiveKill has been selected as direct support on "The Metal Saint Tour 2026," hitting stages across North America this November alongside co-headliners Armored Saint and Metal Church. The tour runs November 2 through November 21, spanning 16 dates from California to British Columbia.

For LiveKill, the run represents a major step forward, bringing their high-voltage live show to new markets and audiences hungry for the kind of uncompromising heavy metal the band has been building toward since their formation in South Florida.

"This tour is exactly the kind of stage we've been working toward. We can't wait to get out there and show people what LiveKill is all about." - John Snell [Guitar, Production]

About LiveKill

LiveKill is a high-energy heavy metal band hailing from South Florida. Determined to stand out as part of the state's legendary metal legacy, the group blends a bold approach to arrangement and production with a killer live show. Their mission is not just to keep the flame of Florida metal burning but to evolve it into something more: an experience that connects with audiences on stage, in the studio, and beyond.
