today announced the acquisition of Infinity Power Partners (IPP), significantly expanding its energy management presence nationally with entry into the multifamily market. The acquisition marks Environ's second transaction of the year and sixth in the past 16 months. With the addition of approximately 2,000 clients, Environ's total customer base now eclipses 8,000 nationwide for a dominant position in integrated energy management and impact across the U.S.

We are excited to become an immediate force in the multifamily commercial real estate segment, a one-stop partner for energy procurement, energy efficiency, and smart, sustainable solutions.”

Chris Sternberg, CEO

The acquisition also establishes a new “anchor segment” for Environ in the multifamily residential markets, adding a portfolio representing more than 1,400,000 units under contract across the United States.

Infinity Power Partners brings a highly complementary consultative model that spans energy procurement, demand response, energy efficiency, and utility bill auditing—further enhancing Environ's comprehensive, end-to-end service offering.

Co-founded by industry entrepreneurs Nick Altman and Peter Selber, Infinity Power Partners has built a strong reputation for delivering client-focused, strategy-driven solutions. Both founders will join Environ, further strengthening its leadership bench and entrepreneurial culture.

“This acquisition continues to solidify our presence in key energy markets while aligning with founders who share our deep commitment to client success,” said Chris Sternberg, CEO of Environ Energy. “We are excited to become an immediate force in the multifamily commercial real estate segment, fully aligned with Environ's vision of serving as a one-stop partner for energy procurement, energy efficiency, and smart, sustainable solutions."

Nick Altman, Co-Founder of Infinity Power Partners, added, "Peter and I are excited to join forces with the Environ team and bring the scale, stability, and expanded capabilities of Environ's platform to our clients. The next chapter of energy management is here, and we are thrilled to be part of the team leading that transformation."

Peter Selber, Co-Founder of Infinity Power Partners, said, "We built our business one relationship at a time, with a strong commitment to the communities we serve. That same dedication is reflected in Environ's approach—now delivered at scale. We are excited about what the future holds for our clients and for the industry as part of Environ."

This acquisition further reinforces Environ Energy's position as a top-tier provider of integrated energy management and sustainability solutions, accelerating its growth strategy and expanding its ability to deliver innovative, client-centric services nationwide.
