LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, June 30, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TOP AC Inc., a Los Angeles-based HVAC contractor Los Angeles founded in 2011 by Itai Kolet, has introduced a new residential membership program called the TOP CLUB. The program is designed to give homeowners structured access to seasonal maintenance, service scheduling, and repair support throughout the year.

Program Structure

The TOP CLUB membership, available through TOP AC's HVAC maintenance plan Los Angeles program, is structured around the following components:

• Scheduled service booking
• Two annual HVAC maintenance visits
• Adjusted rates on covered repairs
• Extended coverage terms on qualifying repairs
• Reduced diagnostic fees for members

According to the company, the membership model was developed in response to a pattern observed across the HVAC industry: systems that do not receive regular seasonal maintenance tend to experience earlier mechanical failure than systems serviced on a consistent schedule.

"Many of the service calls we respond to involve systems that missed routine maintenance," said Itai Kolet, founder of TOP AC Inc. "The membership model gives homeowners a structured way to stay on schedule."
