We are building the firm with the operating discipline of a company, while preserving the judgment and discretion clients expect from a sophisticated tax law practice.”

Dustin Covello

"Dustin has a clear vision for the kind of firm he wants to build," said Sutton. "My role is to help execute that vision by building the systems and workflows that allow the firm to serve clients with clarity, precision, and responsiveness."

Covello Tax Law focuses on exit planning, tax optimization, business and legal advising, and entrepreneur-focused estate planning. The firm works with business owners, investors, and advisory teams on complex tax issues including liquidity events, entity structures, and ongoing planning.
