"Dan and Larry each represent exactly what this firm stands for — deep expertise, genuine client commitment, and a long track record of results," said Peter S. Sachs, Founding Partner of Sachs Sax Caplan Kaskel & Schner. "As we celebrate our 40th anniversary, we are proud to welcome them as named partners and confident they will help lead the firm successfully into its next chapter."

"These are two attorneys who have earned this every step of the way," said Louis Caplan,

Managing Partner of Sachs Sax Caplan Kaskel & Schner, and Chairman of the Community Association Practice Group. "Dan brings an exceptional command of high-stakes real estate work, and Larry has been a cornerstone of our community association practice for years."

Dan Kaskel chairs the firm's Real Estate, Corporate, Land Use & Transactional Services Group and represents investors, developers, and family offices in complex transactions nationwide. His work spans acquisitions, development, financing, and dispositions across major asset classes, often involving transactions exceeding $100 million.

Board Certified by The Florida Bar in both Real Estate Law and Condominium & Planned Development Law, Kaskel has been recognized by Super Lawyers for more than 15 consecutive years and was named a finalist for Best Real Estate Lawyer in Florida by ALM in 2026. He joined Sachs Sax Caplan in 2008.

"I'm proud to be part of a firm that has built a strong reputation across Florida over the past four decades," said Kaskel. "What sets us apart is the depth of our team and the sophistication of the work we handle, and I look forward to continuing to build on that as part of the firm's leadership."

Larry Schner chairs the firm's Litigation Practice Group and is a key member of its Community Association Law team. Schner represents condominium and homeowners' associations throughout Florida. Admitted to The Florida Bar in

Daniel A. Kaskel

Larry E. Schner

1985, Schner brings more than four decades of legal experience to his practice, including 25 years operating his own successful law firm before joining Sachs Sax Caplan in 2016. Over the course of his career, Schner has represented hundreds of community associations, earning a reputation as a trusted advisor and respected authority on condominium and homeowners' association matters throughout South Florida.

"I am honored to be part of a firm with such a strong culture and reputation," said Schner. "I look forward to continuing to serve clients throughout Florida with the full resources of one of the State's most respected law firms."
