

Safety Training Seminars Reaches 100 Locations with New CPR and First Aid Certification School in San Francisco

The launch of Safety Training Seminar's latest school for lifesaving education marks 100 locations throughout California.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, July 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Safety Training Seminars, a trusted American Heart Association (AHA) Training Center serving California since 1989, is proud to announce the opening of its 100th training center at 1160 Battery Street, San Francisco, CA 94111. This milestone reflects the company's continued commitment to making high-quality CPR and First-aid classes accessible throughout California while providing convenient certification courses for healthcare professionals, students, businesses, and the public.

The new San Francisco location offers American Heart Association BLS (Basic Life Support), ACLS (Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support), PALS (Pediatric Advanced Life Support), CPR, and First Aid certification courses. Classes are available daily, including weekends, allowing busy professionals and students to complete their certification or renewal on a schedule that fits their needs.

Since opening its doors in 1989, Safety Training Seminars has helped train thousands of healthcare providers and community members across California. The company has built its reputation by offering affordable prices, experienced instructors, convenient locations, and outstanding customer service while following the latest American Heart Association training guidelines.

The San Francisco CPR training center serves students from the Financial District, North Beach, Chinatown, Nob Hill, South of Market (SoMa), Fisherman's Wharf, the Embarcadero, and surrounding Bay Area communities. The center provides certification courses for registered nurses, physicians, dentists, dental assistants, EMTs, paramedics, firefighters, nursing and medical students, teachers, childcare providers, workplace safety teams, fitness professionals, and anyone interested in learning lifesaving skills.

"Opening our 100th American Heart Association Training Center is an incredible milestone that reflects our team's dedication to making lifesaving education available throughout California," said Laura Seidel, owner of Safety Training Seminars. "We're especially excited to continue expanding in San Francisco, where healthcare professionals, students, businesses, and families can take advantage of our low prices, flexible scheduling, and daily classes. Every student we train strengthens the community's ability to respond confidently during emergencies."
