

Form 941 Filing for Q2 2026 Now Open: TaxZerone Reminds Employers to File Before the July 31 IRS Deadline

Employers can now file Form 941 (Q2-2026) returns with TaxZerone, the #1 IRS-authorized e-file provider, ensuring accurate reporting and timely compliance.

SAN JOSE, CA, UNITED STATES, July 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TaxZerone, an IRS-authorized e-file provider, today announced that the filing season for businesses, payroll service providers, reporting agents, and tax professionals can now prepare and submit their second-quarter payroll tax returns ahead of the July 31, 2026, IRS filing deadline.

Form 941 (Q2-2026), Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return, is officially open. U.S. employers,

Form 941 is used by employers to report federal income taxes, Social Security tax, and Medicare tax withheld from employee paychecks, along with the employer's portion of Social Security and Medicare tax, for the quarter covering April, May, and June 2026. Timely and accurate filing is essential, as the IRS imposes penalties for late or incorrect submissions.

File Form 941 (Q2-2026) Early

The Form 941 filing season for the second quarter of 2026 is now underway, and employers are encouraged to file well before the deadline. Filing early gives businesses additional time to review payroll records, correct reporting errors, reconcile tax deposits, and receive IRS acknowledgment without last-minute pressure.

TaxZerone simplifies the entire filing process. Whether you need to report payroll taxes or submit a zero return, our secure e-filing platform helps you complete and file your return in just a few minutes.

Employers with no wages or tax liability for the quarter can easily select the "No Taxes to Report"

Who Must File Form 941?

If you pay wages that are subject to federal income tax withholding or Social Security and Medicare taxes, you are generally required to file Form 941, Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return, each quarter to report your payroll tax obligations.

You must file Form 941 to report:

- ☐ Wages paid to employees
- ☐ Employee tips reported to the employer
- ☐ Federal income tax withheld from employee wages
- ☐ Both the employer and employee portions of Social Security and Medicare taxes
- ☐ Additional Medicare Tax withheld from employees
- ☐ Quarterly adjustments for Social Security and Medicare taxes due to fractions of cents, sick pay, tips, and group-term life insurance
- ☐ Qualified small business payroll tax credits for increasing research activities
