BRECKENRIDGE, CO - June 2026 - Black Mountain Limo has been named the preferred transportation vendor for the Dillon Amphitheater summer concert series. This gives concertgoers across Summit County a premium, reliable option for getting to and from one of Colorado's most celebrated outdoor stages.

Being named the preferred transportation vendor for the Dillon Amphitheater is an honor that reflects the trust our clients place in us every season.”

Worth Parker, Owner of Black Mountain Limo

The Dillon Amphitheater is a landmark summer destination along the shores of Lake Dillon. Each season, it draws audiences for a diverse lineup of live performances, with open skies and the Rocky Mountains as the backdrop.

As the preferred vendor for the concert series, Black Mountain Limo will serve as the designated ground transportation provider. The service is for attendees who want to enjoy the full experience without the stress of driving, parking, or navigating busy mountain roads on event nights.

Providing luxury transportation services in Colorado at this level requires more than a fleet. It also demands local knowledge, consistent professionalism, and the kind of service that makes every trip part of the event itself. Black Mountain Limo's selection as the preferred vendor is a direct reflection of that standard and the company's established reputation throughout the Breckenridge area and Summit County.

The partnership strengthens access for concertgoers traveling from Breckenridge, nearby resort communities, and surrounding areas. It gives the Dillon Amphitheater's summer audience a trusted, locally rooted transportation option they can count on from the first show of the season to the last.

A Message From the Owner

"Being named the preferred transportation vendor for the Dillon Amphitheater is an honor that reflects the trust our clients place in us every season. We are proud to serve every guest who chooses to arrive in style this summer and look forward to making the concert experience that much better from the moment they step in," said Worth Parker, Owner of Black Mountain Limo.
