The partnership enables Ohmyhome customers in both Singapore and Malaysia to seamlessly buy, sell and rent properties throughout Malaysia through a trusted nationwide network of real estate professionals.

Previously, Ohmyhome's Malaysian operations were focused primarily on the Klang Valley, where the company built a strong reputation for combining technology with high-quality, customer-centric property services. Through this collaboration with Chester Properties, Ohmyhome is now able to extend its reach well beyond Kuala Lumpur, providing customers with access to property opportunities across multiple states.

Founded in 2010, Chester Properties has grown into one of Malaysia's most established real estate agencies, operating a network of 17 real estate advisors, 516 real estate negotiators and more than 4,000 agents across 15 branches in Klang Valley, Johor, Melaka, Negeri Sembilan and Sarawak. The extensive network strengthens Ohmyhome's ability to support customers looking to transact anywhere in Malaysia while maintaining the high service standards both companies are known for.

"This partnership marks an exciting milestone in our Malaysia growth journey," said Rhonda

Wong, CoFounder and Group CEO of Ohmyhome.

"Our customers are increasingly looking beyond Kuala Lumpur when considering investment, relocation or retirement opportunities in Malaysia. By partnering with Chester Properties, we can now offer them trusted, professional support across much of the country while continuing to deliver the seamless digital experience that Ohmyhome is known for."

Dato' Howard Chew, Founder of Chester Properties, said, "We are pleased to partner with Ohmyhome to make property transactions more accessible for buyers, sellers and landlords across Malaysia. Ohmyhome has built a strong technology platform and customer experience, while Chester brings deep local market expertise and one of the country's largest agency networks. Together, we believe we can create greater value for consumers and help more people transact with confidence."

The partnership also benefits Singapore-based customers who are increasingly exploring Malaysian properties for investment, retirement and lifestyle purposes. Through a single trusted platform, customers can now access local expertise across multiple Malaysian markets while enjoying Ohmyhome's end-to-end property services.

As cross-border property interest between Singapore and Malaysia continues to grow, the collaboration reinforces Ohmyhome's commitment to making property transactions simpler, faster and more transparent, regardless of where customers choose to buy, sell or rent.
