Boutique Technology Counsel Built for Fast-Paced Markets

Mousilli Legal Group PLLC has a dedicated team including Senior Trademark & Copyright Counsel Vicky Smolyar, Senior Patent Counsel Benjamin Hanrahan, and Of Counsel litigators

Chris Reel and Maureen Farrell, who brings over 15 years of civil litigation experience.

Designed as an agile legal partner, the firm helps technology companies navigate high-speed business cycles and structures engagements around predictable, measurable business outcomes. From early-stage software companies in Austin and Silicon Valley to mature enterprises managing international IP portfolios, the firm's streamlined approach replaces traditional hourly bottlenecks. This model ensures technology founders can secure essential protections and close financing rounds on schedule without costly administrative delays.

Comprehensive Practice Strengths and Startup Impact

The firm's core capabilities focus on four specialized practice areas designed to resolve key legal friction points:

- Intellectual Property spans patent preparation, international trademark portfolios, copyright enforcement, and trade secret protection.
- Startup Counsel delivers structured support for incorporation, seed-to-series venture financing, and corporate governance.
- Corporate Law covers mergers and acquisitions, commercial contracts, and employment compliance.
- Technology Law addresses complex SaaS licensing, data privacy frameworks, and strategic AI integration.

For seed-stage startups, manual coordination across multiple legal vendors often delays product launches by weeks. Mousilli Legal Group PLLC eliminates this friction by integrating IP registration, founder equity agreements, and employment compliance within a single, unified workflow.

For existing clients, the transition to Mousilli Legal Group PLLC will be seamless, so that active legal matters will proceed seamlessly without interruption.
