PALM BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, July 7, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Recording artist Farrah Mechael brought the inaugural Peace Gala audience to its feet with a standing ovation before she and sister, songwriter Tamara Mechael, formally accepted their appointments as Ambassadors for Peace through the Universal Peace Federation which holds ECOSOC status with the United Nations, alongside distinguished leaders from sports, technology, philanthropy, and public service.

Hosted by Wealth Strategy Media and benefiting Relief Alliance, the June 27 gala brought together leaders from philanthropy, business, technology, public service, and the arts to celebrate individuals recognized for their contributions to peacebuilding, humanitarian service, and community leadership.

Farrah Mechael headlined the evening's entertainment with a live performance spanning timeless jazz and classical standards alongside her own original music, showcasing the vocal versatility that has earned her recognition on international stages. Her performance included Fly Me to the Moon, I'm in Love, Ave Maria, I Put a Spell on You, Moon River, Burning, Witchcraft, At Last, and Pie Jesu.

Following the performance, the sisters were invited to the stage to formally accept their Ambassador for Peace appointments before fellow honorees and gala attendees, receiving certificates presented by Universal Peace Federation representatives Nasser Zomorod and Barry Geller, along with Dr. Jeremy McNally and Aiden McNally of Wealth Strategy Media and Relief
