Many people need more than transportation. They need planning, mobility assistance, and a trusted professional who helps them enjoy their day with confidence and peace of mind.”

Aaron Jackson, President

Developed in response to the growing demand for mobility services that extend beyond transportation, the Wheelchair Concierge Service combines three integrated components:

Accessibility Advance Planning

Personalized Mobility Assistance

Private Wheelchair-Accessible Transportation

Together, these services are designed to support clients before, during, and throughout their outing.

One of the program's distinguishing features is Accessibility Advance Planning, a pre-trip coordination service that helps clients prepare before the day of travel.

When provided with a client's itinerary in advance, VIP Security Transports may coordinate with participating hotels, restaurants, Broadway theaters, museums, shopping destinations, medical facilities, cruise terminals, event venues, parks, and other attractions to better understand available accessibility features and mobility accommodations.

Depending on the client's itinerary, Accessibility Advance Planning may include:

- Reviewing wheelchair accessibility at planned destinations
- Confirming accessible entrances and elevators
- Identifying accessible restrooms
- Reviewing passenger drop-off and pick-up locations
- Identifying curb cuts and accessible pedestrian routes
- Helping identify alternate routes around temporary construction or mobility obstacles, when practical
- Coordinating available accessible seating with participating Broadway theaters, concerts, sporting events, and entertainment venues
- Reviewing hotel accessibility features and guest arrival procedures
- Planning efficient accessible travel routes between destinations
- Coordinating available accessibility accommodations with participating venues
- Conducting advance site visits, when appropriate and practical

While accessibility features remain subject to each property's policies and availability and may change without notice, the objective is to reduce uncertainty and help create a smoother experience before the client ever leaves home.

Unlike traditional transportation providers, Accessibility Advance Planning may be booked independently of the company's transportation services. Clients may utilize the planning service while traveling in their own wheelchair-accessible vehicle, with a family member, or through another transportation provider, including Uber Wheelchair Accessible Vehicles (Uber WAV), taxi services, or other accessible transportation options.

Once the itinerary has been planned, clients may choose to utilize the company's Private Wheelchair-Accessible Transportation and Personalized Mobility Assistance services.

Professional chauffeurs and security drivers may remain with clients throughout their outing, assisting with mobility, navigating accessible entrances and elevators, escorting clients between destinations, carrying personal belongings, and helping clients enjoy restaurants, Broadway performances, museums, shopping districts, parks, waterfront attractions, weddings, medical appointments, business meetings, sporting events, family gatherings, and other destinations throughout the New York region.

"Our philosophy is simple," said Aaron Jackson, President of Finest Executive Protection LLC. "We don't just transport our clients, we help them enjoy their day. Many people living with mobility challenges need more than a ride. They benefit from planning, coordination, and a trusted professional who can assist throughout their experience. We created this service to provide that additional level of support."

The Wheelchair Concierge Service may include:

- Private wheelchair-accessible transportation
- Personalized Mobility Assistance
- Accessibility Advance Planning
- Door-to-door assistance
- Airport and cruise terminal transportation
- Transportation to medical appointments and outpatient procedures
- Broadway performances and entertainment
- Shopping excursions
- Prescription pickup and light errands
