This popular event brings together runners, families, car enthusiasts, and neighbors for an evening of celebration and charitable impact. All proceeds support The ASHLEY Project, an organization providing hot meals, staple groceries, and hope to families in need throughout the surrounding communities. "We're really proud of how popular this run has gotten in just a few years." explained Prefix President, Eric Zeile. "With the important 25th anniversary of September 11th, we're making this a very patriotic event, and expecting a lot of participation."
