family-owned cleaning company serving Conejo Valley since 1994, is helping local families maintain cleaner, healthier homes with professional cleaning services designed with pets, children, and everyday living in mind.

For many households in Thousand Oaks, Westlake Village, Agoura Hills, Newbury Park, and surrounding communities, pets are part of the family. But pet-friendly homes often come with extra cleaning challenges, including fur, dander, tracked-in dirt, odors, and buildup in high-traffic areas.

Atlas Clean Living provides detailed residential cleaning services that help homeowners keep their spaces fresh, comfortable, and cared for without relying on harsh, overwhelming cleaning approaches.

“Families want to feel confident about the products and practices being used in their homes,” said a spokesperson for Atlas Clean Living. “Our goal is to provide a clean that feels thorough, safe, and comfortable for the people and pets who live there every day.”

Atlas Clean Living offers recurring housekeeping, standard cleaning, deep cleaning, move-in and move-out cleaning, and commercial cleaning services throughout the Conejo Valley area. The company is known for its warm, reliable service and flexible team-based approach, allowing them to support busy households with consistent care and responsive scheduling.

Pet owners often benefit from professional cleaning because many pet-related messes are not limited to visible surfaces. Hair, dust, and dander can collect along floors, furniture edges, corners, bathrooms, kitchens, and frequently used living spaces. Regular cleaning can help reduce buildup and create a fresher indoor environment for the entire household.

Atlas Clean Living's residential cleaning services can be especially helpful for families who are managing busy schedules, welcoming guests, preparing for a move, or simply trying to keep up with the daily realities of life with pets. From kitchens and bathrooms to bedrooms and shared living areas, the company focuses on creating spaces that feel refreshed, cared for, and ready to enjoy.

As a long-standing local cleaning company, Atlas Clean Living continues to serve Conejo Valley families with the same values that have guided the business for decades: trust, consistency, attention to detail, and genuine care for the homes they enter.

Homeowners looking for pet-friendly cleaning services in Thousand Oaks, Westlake Village, Agoura Hills, Newbury Park, and surrounding Conejo Valley communities can contact Atlas Clean Living to learn more about residential cleaning, recurring housekeeping, deep cleaning, and move-in or move-out cleaning services.
