Lead America Signature Gala

With the warm and dedicated leadership of Gala Chair Rajesh Gooty and Co-Chair Elisha Pulavarti, the Freedom 250 Gala stands as the premier cultural and patriotic gathering of the summer. An electric atmosphere and a vibrant celebration await attendees as they experience a captivating, deeply uplifting evening meticulously designed to honor the rich legacy of American liberty.

Grandly and magnificently, a true galaxy of stars is expected to grace this signature gala. The evening boasts a rapidly growing list of the august presence of eminent leaders, led by distinguished figures including U.S. Representative Suhas Subramanyam, Leesburg Mayor Ms. Kelly Burk, U.S. Shadow Senator Ankit Jain, Loudoun County Treasurer Henry C. Eickelberg, and Former Leesburg Councilman Ron Campbell amongst others.

This high-profile gathering features inspirational live songs, instrumental music, and soul-stirring dance showcases by the acclaimed Natyamargam Dance School, seamlessly blending traditional artistry with patriotic fervor. In addition to these magnificent cultural spectacles, the evening anchors itself in a prestigious award ceremony dedicated to honoring standout regional and national figures who excel in community architecture, leadership development, and youth empowerment. This landmark gathering serves as a powerful nexus of solidarity, bringing together influential voices from government, business, technology, academia, faith communities, and civil society to engage in cross-sector dialogue and collectively champion America's founding ideals of life, liberty and freedom.

Invitation to Freedom250 Liberty Gala on July 19, 2026 by Lead America and Interfaith communities

“For over 25 years, this great nation — in its 250 years of extraordinary prosperity — has blessed me with air to breathe, water to drink, and infinite opportunities. Being So Blessed, every single day I implore myself: What can I do for this great nation that has given me everything? The answer echoes in this timeless Sanskrit truth: ‘Mother and Motherland are greater than heaven.’ We are much more than contributing citizens. We are the privileged sons and daughters of America — and truly grateful global citizens. We are richly blessed indeed!”

Lead America Leadership: This landmark celebration is spearheaded by Lead America and the United National Diversity Coalition of America under the visionary and dedicated leadership of Signature Event Chair Rajesh Gooty, a passionate community architect, principled bridge-builder, and tireless advocate for building inclusive communities.

Elisha Pulavarti serves as a vital pillar of leadership for this landmark initiative, bringing collaborative excellence and deep-seated devotion to social advocacy as Co-Chair. A business community champion, Pulavarti's passion for inclusive outreach and strategic mobilization is instrumental in bridging civic sectors, inspiring volunteers, and uniting diverse regional alliances.

As a true pioneer for Hindu advocacy, Gooty instituted the first-ever Diwali stamp and the first-ever Hindu Diwali holiday in Loudoun County—creating a historic national template—while also championing the historic Hindu Heritage Month in the Commonwealth of Virginia, carving a path for the rest of the nation to follow. His strategic foresight and deep commitment to youth leadership, interfaith harmony, education, and equitable opportunity are instrumental in forging this historic event, the Signature Gala.

Lead America Inc. is an all-volunteer non-profit organization dedicated to building inclusive communities, championing youth leadership, fostering quality education, advancing advocacy, and celebrating diversity. By building strategic alliances across corporate, civic, and cultural sectors, Lead America helps empower the next generation of visionary community leaders and architects of the future.
