The first installment in the Rose and Clive Search and Rescue Thriller series introduces readers to an unforgettable adventure where every discovery uncovers an even darker truth.

Seeking peace after surviving a traumatic experience in Minnesota, Rose Clarke and her search and rescue dog, Clive, travel to California's majestic redwoods for what should have been a quiet escape. Instead, Clive leads Rose off the trail to a shocking discovery. Hidden inside a carved redwood tree is five-year-old Ana, injured, frightened, and desperately clinging to hope. Her whispered stories of a mysterious figure known only as The Father quickly transform a single rescue into a complex investigation involving missing children, hidden secrets, and a ruthless criminal who believes he is creating his own family.

As authorities uncover a series of heartbreaking crimes stretching from the California coast to an illegal children's home in Utah, Rose finds herself pulled deeper into a dangerous pursuit. The investigation eventually follows her back to her Indiana farm, where the threat becomes intensely personal. Knowing Clive's name and Rose's home, the killer is determined to finish what he started, forcing Rose to risk everything to protect the children who have already endured unimaginable fear.
