Northern Cincinnati Foundation Grows Its Family of Affiliate Funds, Strengthening Local Philanthropy Across the Region

CINCINNATI, OH, UNITED STATES, July 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Northern Cincinnati Foundation (NCF) today highlighted its growing roster of Affiliate Funds — a partnership model that lets local organizations, schools, and civic groups run their own charitable funds with the full financial, administrative, and philanthropic backing of an experienced community foundation behind them.

NCF's current affiliate partners include:

- Wellspring Community Foundation
- Lakota Schools Foundation
- Rotary Club of West Chester/Liberty Foundation
- Free Throws For Kids
- Angel Fund Endowment
- Heroes Fund Endowment
- Power of the Purse Endowment

Create Lasting Impact. Keep Your Vision Local.

Northern Cincinnati Foundation partners with communities, organizations, and leaders to create Affiliate Funds that support the causes and places they care about most. Whether the focus is a geographic community, a shared area of interest, or a charitable mission, affiliate funds give local leaders a lasting way to inspire philanthropy and address needs close to home.

NCF's team handles the administrative, financial, investment, and philanthropic expertise required to manage each fund with confidence — freeing up advisory leaders to focus on what they do best: building relationships, engaging donors, and creating impact.

What NCF Provides

- Fund administration and financial management
- Investment oversight and endowment management
- Grantmaking administration
- Gift acceptance and donor services
- Governance, compliance, and fiduciary oversight
- Marketing, technology, and philanthropic support
- Strategic guidance from an experienced community foundation

“With the strength of Northern Cincinnati Foundation behind you, your affiliate fund can focus on what matters most — responding to needs and building a legacy that will benefit your community or cause for generations to come,” said Erin Satzger, President & CEO of Northern Cincinnati Foundation.
