Houston, TX, July 7, 2026

BoyarMiller is pleased to announce that Mike Rose has joined the firm as a Shareholder in the Litigation Group.

Rose is Board Certified in Labor and Employment Law and represents employers in a broad range of labor and employment litigation. His experience includes matters involving the Fair Labor Standards Act, including single-plaintiff cases and collective and class actions, as well as claims under Title VII, the ADEA, the ADA, OSHA, and Section 1981.

He represents employers in various proceedings, including those involving wrongful termination, harassment, and OSHA retaliation claim, as well as proceedings before federal, state, and local employment-related agencies. His practice includes representing employers in noncompete, restrictive covenant, and trade secret disputes.

"Mike brings an extensive labor and employment litigation track record and a practical understanding of the challenges employers face in today's business environment," said Andrew Pearce, Litigation Group Chair. "His judgment, courtroom proficiency, and client-focused approach make him a strong addition to our Litigation Group and a valuable resource for the clients we serve."

Rose's professional history spans all aspects of labor and employment-related litigation, including court hearings, trials, arbitrations, depositions, dispositive motions, negotiation, and mediation. He has represented employers across industries including energy, manufacturing, oilfield services, construction, and steel fabrication.

As a shareholder, Rose will continue advising employers on employment litigation, wage and hour issues, restrictive covenant and noncompete disputes, OSHA-related disputes, traditional labor issues, and employment counseling. His experience helps clients assess risk, protect business interests, and resolve disputes with a clear focus on business objectives.

Rose has been recognized by Best Lawyers in America® as "Lawyer of the Year" Houston, Employment Law – Management for 2026. He has also been recognized by Best Lawyers in America® for Litigation – Labor & Employment from 2022-2026 and Employment Law – Management from 2024-2026. He has been ranked by Chambers USA in Labor & Employment, Texas, Band 5, from 2021-2026.
