“Our hobby isn't just growing in the United States – it's witnessing a global boom,” said the JBJ Promotions NSCC show managers. “These are a collection of some of the best dealers in Europe, the UK and Asia, and we are thrilled to have them aboard as we continue to expand Hall G and the show as a whole.”

In response to significant dealer demand, the 2025 National had a 30% larger footprint – 650,000 square feet – with nearly 20% more space for vendors that included a new upstairs area in Hall G with 75 additional vendors. This year's National will expand on the Hall G success by adding 150 more dealer tables there and on the main floor, an enhanced Mike Berkus Memorial Stage, a new NSCC activation yet to be announced, and new corporate activation areas.
