We are not some big franchise. We are your neighbors, and we just want to give Coeur d'Alene the best, most personal dumpster service around.”

Clara Clifton - Owner of Panhandle Haul'in

Panhandle Haul'in is owned and operated by Dan and Clara Clifton, who live and work in North Idaho themselves. Unlike the large national franchises, Panhandle Haul'in is a small, locally run operation that treats every customer's property like its own.

"We are not some big franchise. We are your neighbors, and we just want to give Coeur d'Alene the best, most personal dumpster service around," said Clara Clifton, co-owner of Panhandle Haul'in.

What Coeur d'Alene Customers Can Expect

Panhandle Haul'in offers 14-yard and 20-yard roll-off dumpsters, sized to handle everything from smaller cleanup jobs to larger home renovations and construction work. Customers throughout the Coeur d'Alene area can count on:

- On-time delivery and pickup, every time, with no rescheduling surprises
- Flexible rental periods to fit the pace of any project
- Driveway protection and careful, professional placement
- Honest, upfront pricing with no hidden fees
- A simple 3-step booking process, online or over the phone
- 10% off for US Military, Senior Citizens, and First Responders

As a locally owned and family operated business, Panhandle Haul'in brings a level of care and accountability that the big national chains often cannot match. The Cliftons know the Coeur d'Alene area well and understand what it takes to get a job done right for their neighbors, whether it is a weekend garage cleanout or a full home remodel.

"I just want to keep serving this community and helping folks get their projects done without the stress," Clara added. "Nothing makes us happier than a happy customer here in our own backyard."

Serving Coeur d'Alene, Post Falls, and All of North Idaho

While Panhandle Haul'in is based in Rathdrum, Coeur d'Alene has always been a core part of the community it serves. As the largest city in the region, Coeur d'Alene sees constant home improvement, construction, and cleanup activity, and Panhandle Haul'in wants every resident and contractor in the city to know they have a dependable, locally owned dumpster company Panhandle Haul'in also proudly serves Post Falls with the same fast, on-time roll-off dumpster service. The company additionally covers Hayden, Spirit Lake, Athol, Worley, Twin Lakes, and the surrounding North Idaho communities, but its commitment to Coeur d'Alene and Post Falls remains front and center.

A Track Record of Local, Personal Service

Panhandle Haul'in has earned a wall of glowing reviews from North Idaho customers, and the same themes come up again and again: on-time delivery, honest pricing, and a genuinely helpful, personal touch. Customers regularly point out how Dan and Clara take the time to help them choose the right dumpster size for the job, and more than one has noted the company's pricing came in dramatically lower than competitors for the same work.

Homeowners, contractors, and businesses across the area have praised the Cliftons for their flexibility, clear communication, and willingness to go the extra mile, from accommodating last-minute date changes to delivering an extra dumpster on a day's notice. For a family-run business, that reputation is everything.
