In Terry Greene: The Man, His Ministry & Music Career, Greene recounts his journey from childhood in West Palm Beach, Florida, where he was raised by his parents, Primus and Dorothy Honey Greene, with aspirations that extended far beyond his surroundings. The inspiration for the book comes from Greene's desire to encourage others by sharing the lessons learned throughout his life's journey. Beyond recounting personal experiences, the memoir explores themes of hope, spiritual growth, determination, and the transformative influence of music and ministry. Greene emphasizes that
