

Arts Garage Launches Celebrity Doodle Auction to Benefit Downtown Delray's Arts Hub

Original Sketches from Aubrey Plaza, Gina Gershon, Ann Hampton Callaway and More Go Up For Bid July 29

DELRAY BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, July 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Arts Garage, a Visual & Performing Arts Center in Downtown Delray Beach, today announced the launch of its Celebrity Doodle Auction, a unique fundraising campaign featuring original, one-of-a-kind sketches created by celebrities from the worlds of entertainment, music, sports, media, and the arts.

Each participant was given a blank canvas and complete creative freedom, resulting in a diverse collection of original doodles, drawings, and artistic expressions. Featured contributors include Aubrey Plaza, Gina Gershon, Ann Hampton Callaway, Carmine Appice, Néstor Torres, Chris Abbott, Anthony Firkser, Brad Alexander, Kevin Kallaugher, Leslie Gold ("Radio Chick"), Moses Ros, and additional notable personalities.

"We asked some incredibly talented people to put pen to paper with absolutely no rules, and it was so fun to see what they created," said Marjorie Waldo, President and CEO, Arts Garage. "It's a lighthearted way to raise serious support for our programming, and every bid helps us keep bringing inspiring visual and performing arts experiences to our community."

Bidding opens July 29 and continues through August 12, 2026, with all proceeds supporting Arts Garage's mission to provide access to innovative, diverse, and meaningful performing and visual arts experiences for the community. The auction has a fundraising goal of $25,000.

The celebrity doodles will be available for viewing and bidding on the Arts Garage website
