

Glenwood Springs Branch Library to Host Free Local Author Showcase Featuring 28+ Writers on July 25

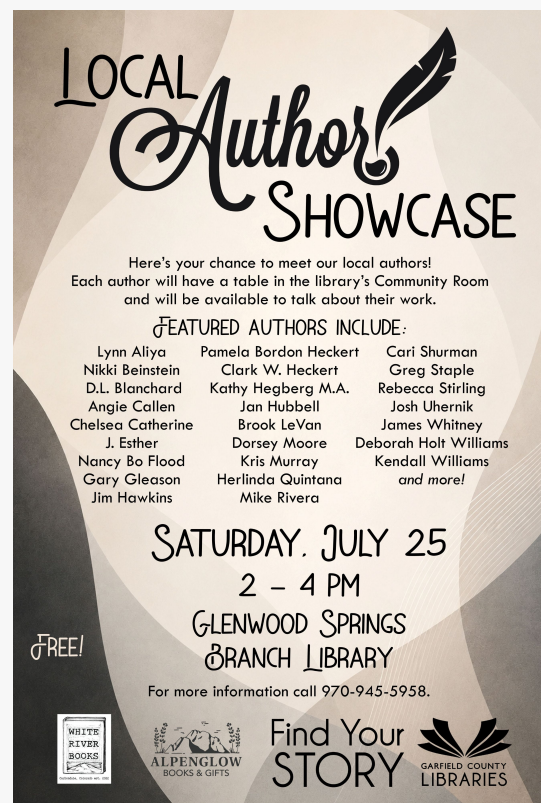

From an International Book Award winner to a national Wrangler Award recipient, Garfield County authors span genres and generations at a free community event.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, CO, UNITED STATES, July 9, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Glenwood Springs, CO — On Saturday, July 25, the Glenwood Springs Branch Library will host a free Local Author Showcase from 2–4 PM, bringing together more than 28 local and regional authors for a rare opportunity to meet the writers behind the books — in person, in one room, at no cost to attendees. The event features an unusually diverse range of voices and genres, from children's picture books and Western history to business, self-help, fiction, and poetry. Each author will have a table in the library's Community Room and will be available to discuss their work, sign books, and connect with readers of all ages.

Among the featured authors are two with recent national recognition. Glenwood Springs author Nancy Bo Flood received the 2025 Western Heritage Wrangler Award from the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum for her children's book
