ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES, July 10, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Moonie Foundation Announces Star-Studded Gospel Stage Play I Should Have Said Something Coming to Orlando

The Moonie Foundation is thrilled to announce the Orlando premiere of the highly anticipated gospel stage play, I Should Have Said Something. This powerful production will take place on Sunday, July 26, with doors opening at 4:00 PM and the curtain rising at 4:30 PM.

Inspired by the deeply moving real-life story of author Gayle Stallworth, the play explores the profound impacts of physical and mental abuse, illustrating what one's journey toward true healing can look like. The production is directed by Hollywood veteran Chaz Shepherd and brought to life by Executive Producers and Creative Consultants E'Marie Moonie and Jarret "JJ" Moonie. Co-written by E'Marie Moonie, Gayle Stallworth, D'Ericja Stevenson, and Janice Feaster, this captivating production is presented in partnership with the Pentecostal Churches of the Apostolic Faith International (PCAFI).

E'Marie Moonie has created a masterpiece, and you don't want to miss this!"
