The July 11th performance, titled "Here's To Life," will offer East End audiences an intimate evening with Callaway in the industrial-chic, black-box setting of LTV Studios. The evening continues the spirit of Hamptons Summer Songbook By The Sea, which pairs world-class performers with café-style seating, superb acoustics and the immediacy of a close-up live performance.

Callaway breathes wisdom and passion into Arlen, Porter, Rodgers, and the Bergmans, as well as contemporary writers and her own originals. Come and see why Christopher Loudon of Jazz Times calls her the "...superbly intelligent, singularly creative pop-jazz stylist who can stand shoulder to shoulder with the likes of Streisand, Ronstadt, Shirley Horn, and Dianne Reeves..."

Produced by Donna Rubin and Josh Gladstone, Hamptons Summer Songbook By The Sea has become a distinctive cultural fixture in the Hamptons, presenting leading voices from Broadway, cabaret and jazz in a setting designed for storytelling, sophistication and connection. The series gives audiences the rare opportunity to experience major performers in an up-close environment that feels both polished and personal.

The 2026 season opened with Broadway star Norm Lewis and continues with a summer lineup celebrating the American Songbook, cabaret and musical theater.
