

Apron Agencies Offers Free Whole Home Insurance Check-Up to Help Homeowners Stay Protected

Homeowners who take advantage of Apron Agencies whole home insurance checkup has the opportunity to save on auto, home, business, life and health insurance.

METAIRIE, LA, UNITED STATES, August 25, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Apron Agencies, an independent insurance agency based in Metairie, Louisiana, is offering a free whole home insurance checkup to help homeowners review their existing insurance coverage and better understand their policy options. Homeowners who send Apron Agencies their Insurance Declaration pages (a/k/a DEC pages) for their home, flood, auto, life, and/or health insurance policies can receive some valuable feedback on whether they may be over or under insured. .

Mel Leveque, owner and founder of Apron Agencies insurance company.

The whole home insurance complimentary insurance review is designed to help homeowners evaluate their current coverage through a simple three-step process:

1. Visit Apron Agencies' website and request a whole home household insurance checkup.
2. Provide copies of your insurance declaration (DEC) sheets for your home, flood, auto, life, and/or health insurance policies.
3. Receive a personalized policy review with an independent insurance agent (by telephone or in-person appointment), to discuss current coverage and available insurance options.

According to Apron Agencies' founder and owner, Mel Leveque, many homeowners renew their insurance policies each year without reviewing their coverage or determining whether it continues to meet their needs. The whole home insurance checkup provides an opportunity for policyholders to review their existing coverage and ask questions about their insurance protection.

As an independent insurance agency representing multiple insurance carriers, Apron Agencies compares coverage options from different providers based on each homeowner's individual circumstances. "The main advantage to using an independent insurance agency is that we work for you!," says Leveque, "Unlike most run-of-the-mill insurance companies, at Apron Agencies, our team of independent insurance agents have the experience and skills to get you the best policy available within your budget. Like momma in the kitchen, we got you covered".

Homeowners insurance policies vary depending on factors such as the property's location, the selected coverage, and the value of the home and personal belongings.

Policies may include coverage for:

- Property coverage, which helps pay for repairs to a home, garage, or other covered structures damaged by a covered loss.
- Personal property coverage, which helps protect belongings such as electronics, jewelry, and other valuables from covered losses.
- Personal liability coverage, which may provide financial protection if the policyholder is legally responsible for injuries to another person or damage to someone else's property.
- Medical payments coverage, which may help cover medical expenses for non-residents injured on the insured property.
- Additional living expenses coverage, which may help pay for temporary housing and certain living expenses if a covered loss makes the home uninhabitable.

In addition to homeowners insurance, Apron Agencies offers automobile, flood, earthquake, jewelry, and personal umbrella insurance policies.
