Located in the atmospheric cellar of Peadar Kearney's Pub on Dame Street in the heart of Temple Bar (with Tuesday shows at the International Bar), In Stitches has quickly become the go-to destination for locals, tourists, and comedy lovers seeking world-class stand-up in an intimate, high-energy setting.

Our new website is a game-changer”

Emman Idama

“Our new website is a game-changer,” said Emman Idama, owner and resident host of In Stitches Comedy Club. “Whether you want to drop in for a spontaneous show or plan ahead for a weekend packed with special guests, everything you need is now right at your fingertips. We’re proud to showcase the best Irish comedy talent alongside incredible visiting acts, and we’re open every single night so there’s always a reason to come get your laughs.”

In addition to its famous seven-nights-a-week format, In Stitches hosts a popular Gong Show on Mondays where rising comedians take the stage and face the audience, delivers standout special guest lineups on weekends, and offers attractive student discounts along with flexible group packages perfect for parties, corporate events, and celebrations. Full details on all upcoming shows and experiences are available at <https://institchescomedys.com/shows/>.
