

Community Hub OutLGBTQ.com Announces Partnership with OutSFL To Expand Platform Scope & Inclusivity Messaging

FT. LAUDERDALE, FL, UNITED STATES, July 14, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- OutLGBTQ.com, the recently-launched, nationally-reaching calendar, directory and database platform devoted to uplifting LGBTQ+ led (as well as LGBTQ+-supporting) businesses and organizations, has announced the next step in their expansion: an official partnership, beginning August 1st, with OutSFL Newspaper, one of South Florida's leading LGBTQ+ publications advocating for independent journalism, community, and equality.

"We are incredibly excited to be joining forces with OutSFL's amazing team, who have been at the frontlines of fighting back against Florida and the U.S. 's rising anti-LGBTQ+ sentiment," stated Norman Extract, OutLGBTQ.com's Founder. "I've known the duo behind it for several years now, and I've always been in awe of the effort they've put forward to preserve our community's voices. Being able to directly contribute to OutSFL's growth, all while receiving renewed support in return, is an honor, and I look forward to unveiling what we have in store."

Founded in 2023, OutSFL was established by Jason Parsley and Justin Wyse with the goal of filling the void left behind by 'South Florida Gay News.' Since then, the outlet has become a primary source for thousands of readers across the South Florida region, keeping them up-to-date on events, celebrations, LGBTQ+-related legislation, politics, history, entertainment and culture.

As part of the partnership, OutSFL will run weekly ads and marketing for OutLGBTQ.com, being a key player in the site's expansion beyond Ft. Lauderdale into Miami-Dade, the Florida Keys, Palm Beach County, and Oakland Park. OutLGBTQ.com's calendar will also become part of OutSFL, with the publication making access wider. Florida businesses will also have the opportunity to be listed on OutLGBTQ.com for free. Additionally, if they wish to utilize the calendar, there are plans available to reach users.

OutLGBTQ.com users and businesses will also gain access to Perks+ VIP, a platform where they will have advanced access to purchase speciality gift cards supporting their favorite venues for 50% 2 weeks before the general public.

"We are partnering with OutSFL's business arm, and this move will take us far beyond where we currently are as a platform," added Extract. "OutSFL's loyal supporters will gain access to a calendar and directory 'yellow pages' unlike any other, one truly dedicated to LGBTQ+ visibility in every form. We will also be able to better promote businesses and non-profits advocating for our freedoms, a key way of mobilizing action in today's political climate. I can't thank Jason and Justin enough for the privilege of partnering with their network, and I know they feel the same."

"OUTSFL is excited to bring our community a program that will enhance the efforts of our business community," said Justin Wyse. "Creating a centralized calendar has never been a small request, and OUTLGBTQ.com is here to help enhance the community further."

"As the leading LGBTQ+ media resource in South Florida, we strive to bring our community the best of what we have to offer. OUTLGBTQ.com is working alongside our mission and goals to help ensure a better community for all."
