Four Students Honored for Academic Excellence and Community Commitment

GARDENA, CA, UNITED STATES, July 14, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nissin Foods USA is proud to announce the recipients of the 2026 Good Neighbor Scholarship, recognizing four outstanding high school seniors for their academic achievement, leadership, and commitment to community.

Nissin Foods USA announces four scholarship winners

Scholarships totaling $20,000 were awarded, providing four individual awards of $5,000 each. Three scholarships were awarded to students who live near Nissin Food's U.S. facilities in Gardena, CA; Lancaster, PA; and Greenville, SC. The Nissin Family Scholarship was awarded to the child of a Nissin employee.

These exceptional students have demonstrated a commitment to academic excellence, leadership, and service to their communities. We are proud to support them as they pursue their educational goals...”

Eric Gruneisen, Nissin Foods USA

This year's recipients are:

Kaitlyn Young – Lancaster, PA

Kaitlyn will be attending Northeastern University this fall to major in Data Science. She aspires to a career in professional motorsports, expanding on her passions for computers, numbers, and statistics.

Sharon Antony – Greenville, SC

Sharon is attending the University of Georgia to major in Cellular Biology. Following her undergraduate studies, her goal is to attend medical school with a focus on treatments for neurodegenerative and developmental diseases.

Chloe is headed to Purdue University in the fall to pursue a major in Psychology and Psychological Sciences. She is passionate about seeking a career that allows her to give back to communities.

Asia Durham – Gardena, CA – Nissin Family Scholarship

Asia is the daughter of Nicole James, Human Resources Manager at Nissin Foods Greenville. She will be attending Drexel University to study Biomedical Engineering, expanding on her interests in STEM and healthcare.

Nissin's Vice President of Communications, Eric Gruneisen, celebrated this year's impressive winners, saying, "Congratulations to Kaitlyn Young, Sharon Antony, Chloe Lam, and Asia Durham on being selected as our 2026 Nissin Food Good Neighbor Scholarship recipients. These exceptional students have demonstrated a commitment to academic excellence, leadership, and service to their communities. We are proud to support them as they pursue their educational goals and look forward to seeing the positive impact they will make in the future."

The Good Neighbor Scholarship is part of Nissin's broader mission to nourish the lives of the people and places it serves. More information is available at nissingoodneighbor.com.
