

Rand Group expands Sage partnership into Canada

Expansion brings Sage Intacct expertise, implementation services, and long-term support to Canadian organizations

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, July 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rand Group, a professional services firm specializing in ERP, CRM, data analytics, and business technology solutions, today announced the expansion of its Sage partnership into Canada. This expansion enables Rand Group to provide Canadian organizations with Sage Intacct consulting, implementation, optimization, and support services designed to help finance teams strengthen controls, improve visibility, and support scalable growth.

Expanding our Sage partnership into Canada is a natural next step in how we support growing organizations across North America.”

Eric Anderson

As businesses across Canada evaluate cloud-based financial management solutions, Rand Group's Sage partnership provides access to experienced consultants with expertise in ERP implementation, accounting processes, reporting, integrations, and ongoing system support. By combining Sage Intacct with Rand Group's business process expertise, Canadian organizations can reduce manual work, strengthen financial processes, improve operational efficiency, and support more informed decision-making.

“Expanding our Sage partnership into Canada is a natural next step in how we support growing organizations across North America,” said Eric Anderson, Vice President of Sage at Rand Group. “Canadian finance leaders are looking for modern tools that can streamline accounting processes, support stronger reporting, and provide better visibility across the business. With Sage Intacct and Rand Group's consulting experience, we are well-positioned to help organizations move forward with confidence.”

Sage Intacct is a cloud financial management solution that helps organizations automate core accounting processes, gain real-time reporting insights, and manage complex financial operations across multiple entities, locations, and currencies. This expanded partnership strengthens Rand Group's presence in the Canadian market and reflects its continued investment in helping finance teams get more value from Sage Intacct.
